Jesus is...the Messiah, the Christ

John 1:41

"We have found the Messiah" (that is, the Christ).

The first thing Andrew did was to find his brother Simon and tell him, "We have found the Messiah" (that is, the Christ).

John 1:41

Many expressions of love and affection will be exchanged once again this Valentine's Day. Yet, there is no greater act of love than the life, death and resurrection of Christ Jesus for our salvation. The whole of Scripture revolves around this one supreme act of unconditional love!

But why is it that Christians associate the title Christ with God's love in Jesus? What does the word Christ mean? A look at God's Word will help explain this. The Gospel of Matthew begins by recording the genealogy of Jesus, who was the son of David and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ. (Matthew 1:16).

As Matthew sets the tone for his Gospel, he is careful to note that Jesus was revered as Christ. This familiar title is actually a form of the Greek word chrío meaning to pour or anoint. To anoint was to pour sacred oil over someone's head as a visible sign that God had set him aside for a special task. Jesus bore the title Christ because he was the one God anointed to be the world's Savior.

The Gospel of John in the first chapter reveals Jesus, the Word made flesh, and describes Andrew's excitement at having met Jesus: "The first thing Andrew did was to find his brother Simon and tell him, 'We have found the Messiah' (that is, the Christ)." (John 1:41). Andrew bursts forth in joyful acclamation, using the title Messiah which is the Hebrew equivalent of Christ, the Anointed One.

The Gospel writer John is keen to point out that from the beginning of Jesus' public ministry the hope of the ages was intimately associated with salvation in Jesus. Yes, at the time of his baptism Jesus was consecrated for his messianic ministry in a remarkable way. Heaven was opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and lighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased" (Matthew 3:16-17). Jesus was anointed by the Spirit of God and received the clear approval of his heavenly Father. Talk about divine endorsement!

Because Jesus is The Anointed One, he is the one foretold in ancient prophecy who would bring salvation, redeeming us from the curse of sin! There is no greater act of love - true love! Now that's a magnificent valentine!

Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church, Chesaning, Michigan
SUMMARY OF COORDINATING COUNCIL MINUTES
Tuesday, January 14, 2014 at 8:00 p.m.

The meeting was opened with devotion on the ~~%~~Old and New Covenant+by Pastor Thomford.

Pastor's Report: No membership changes.

Reports of Officers and Boards:

- Our Financial Secretary, Joe Donovan, reported that he has received so far in the current fiscal year $164,542.54 from July 1 through December 31, 2013. This comes to an average to $5,354 per Sunday for the first 26th Sundays of our fiscal year. Our budget requires that we need $5,360 to meet our budget. We have fallen each week $6. He reports that we are currently $156 under budget for the first 26 Sundays of this year.
- Our Treasurer, Robert Wille, reported that he has received $164104.54 in offering from our Financial Secretary. He reports we are holding approximately $35,000 in unpaid bills.
- School Board Chairman Bill Hedrich reported that School has had 5 snow days this year and will eliminate one vacation day to make up for snow days. The Board is still looking into some guidance into setting up financial aid for parents needing help with tuition at Zion Lutheran School. The Board is looking in to the purchase of a new sign to replace the sign in the driveway since it is deteriorating. The colors for the combined sports team of Christ and Zion will be black and gold. The schools are still discussing a mascot choice.
- The EldersqBoard Chairman, Denny Peters, reported they have two new members and the Elders Board explained to them how the EldersqBoard works.
- Property Board Chairman, Ray Klipper, reported that the Property Board is looking into restoring the hardwood floor under the altar sanctuary of church.
- Evangelism Board Chairman, Dave Huggard, reported that since we were located at the Peet Center for the Candle Walk we had an increase in contacts this year.

NEW BUSINESS:

- The Council discussed the bid from Quackenbush Heating & Cooling which was a bid of $46,029. The board also spoke to Brian Rohac via conference call. Brian recommended that the council check on forced air systems. He also suggested checking into the warranties offered on the systems we are considering, and he also recommended checking on repair cost of the systems.
- Taxes: Pastor Thomford and Matthew Augustine ask that the Council adopt a motion to allow Pastor Thomford and Matthew Augustine to set their housing allowance at $5000, rental value of the parsonage/teachorage at $400/month, and business expense not reimbursed at $2000. This does not affect their salary in anyway but does allow them to gain tax advantage for how their salary appears on the W-2 form. The Council adopted this for the 2014 calendar year.
- Pastor Thomford reported that Karen Boyd has asked to step down from her duty as Organist after many years of faithful service. Pastor Thomford asked the Council how we could thank her for her many years of faithful devotion as an organist for Zion.
- Sanctuary: Pastor Thomford asked the council to consider not replacing the communion rails since they are no longer in use and to restore the hardwood floors.

EUCHRE TOURNAMENTS

The Adult Discipleship Board has planned a Euchre Tournaments for fellowship and fun for the members of Zion. The tournament is scheduled for the Fellowship Hall in the church basement on Saturday, Saturday, February 22, 2014. Please mark your calendars and watch upcoming bulletins for more information.

FINDING TRUE LIFE

No one ever struggled more to find inner unity and, thus, real life than St. Paul. In chapter 8 of his letter to the Romans, Paul testified: ~~%~~Those who live according to the sinful nature have their minds set on what the nature desires; but those who live in accordance with the Spirit have their minds set on what the Spirit desires. The mind of sinful man is death, but the mind controlled by the Spirit is life and peace;+(Romans 8:5-6, NIV). Spirit-minded souls, Paul would say, will find the fruit of the Holy Spirit within: ~~%~~But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law.+(Galatians 5:22-23, NIV).

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT—JANUARY 2014

My grandfather farmed an eighty acre farm from the time he graduated high school until the year that he passed away. Much of his time was spent fixing second-hand machinery or cultivating his organic beans. His days were not glamorous nor were they appropriately rewarded for the time he spent in the shop and fields. Despite the difficult nature of his occupation, he loved his job and was a firm believer that ~~work~~ work is a blessing+.

I think of that phrase often, and I wonder how easy it is to forget. Monday mornings have a tendency to make us forget the blessing that is work. The sinful human nature, that is born within us all, is always active. It tells us that we are to be discontent, frustrated, or upset with the life we have. Yet, we know that beneath the superficial Monday blues, we are fortunate to be healthy and capable of earning a living. We can agree that work is truly a blessing.

However, aside from our occupation, there is another kind of work that requires our attention. This is the work of sharing our faith with others through word and action. This work can also be a daunting responsibility. Our society has become more accepting of everything except God's commands, and this leaves us Christians in a difficult position when approaching friends. Yet, we are equipped to express our beliefs and tell others of the peace we have in Christ's salvation.

You may not consider yourself the type of person who voices their religious beliefs, but when we withhold the gospel message we put others at risk. No one speaks the words of the Bible without the help of the Holy Spirit, and even if we personally never see the results, His Word always has an effect.

Let's pray that the Lord gives us an attitude which helps us see opportunities to represent him as blessings. It is truly a blessing to have opportunities to stand up for Christ and share the peace and joy that we enjoy as Christians. It can be our prayer to remember that we are blessed for all types of work.

This is the work of the our Lutheran Elementary school. With the Lord's blessing we train students to become hard workers in the classroom and also in the ministry of the Gospel. It is a blessing to witness what the Lord's next generation of workers grow spiritually and academically, and with your prayers and support we will continue to train them.

Below are recent events at your Lutheran Elementary School:

- Scholarships – The Board of Education is discussing the best ways to offer financial support to struggling families in the form of tuition assistance. We hope to have a solution in place by the summer.
- Book Fair – The annual February book sale has been moved to church this year to get all members involved. Spend some time shopping for children's books during early February and our school will receive credit to buy library books.
- Snow Day cancels vacation – Due to a slew of January snow days, the faculty and Board found it wise to remove a vacation day that was scheduled in late February. Make sure to check your online calendar for the most up-to-date school plans!
- Children's concert and art show – The students of Zion will be performing patriotic songs for the Zion Parents group and church members on Sunday, February 9 at 6:30pm. The event will take place in the church basement.

Answer: B (See Proverbs 15:17, NRSV.)

WOMEN SERVING CHRIST MEETING MINUTES TUESDAY, JANUARY 21, 2014

Pastor opened the meeting with a devotion on New Wine in Old Wineskins. The New Covenant that Jesus set gives us the forgiveness of sins. The Old Covenant serves as a mirror to show us our sins.

Thelma Parshall handed out the 2013 treasurer's report. Jean Devereaux read several thank you notes from our shut-ins for the Christmas gifts WSC gave them. Cards were signed for our 2 mission families. We collected $443 at the mission dinner. It was suggested it be rounded up to $450 and it will be sent to the Calvary Academy Ministries. The kitchen refrigerator was freezing food and WSC had it repaired.

We discussed the new groups that we have been using over the past 2 years. Overall thoughts are that they are working well and we are sometimes short on people to help serve at the dinners. We will have 2 groups work together as needed. A letter is going to be put in everyone's mail box to explain the purpose of having groups and how they work. Also new members will be added to a group. Lists of each group will be available to anyone who would like a copy.

A display board is being ordered for the church Fellowship Hall and we will be putting the Confirmation pictures in it. Lenten suppers are being organized. Information on Today's Christian Women's Retreat in March at Traverse City and also a fall retreat in Kalamazoo will be posted. NPH is offering book fairs again and we will be discussing whether to organize one at Zion.

We closed with the Lord's Prayer. Next month's servers are Thelma Parshall & Paula Huggard. Attendees: Jeannie Gregory, Paula Huggard, Jean Gregory, Harriet Kukulis, Thelma Parshall, Jean Devereaux, Terry Barancik, Annette Donaldson, Laurie Lanczynski

In The Lord's Service,
Terry Barancik, Acting Secretary

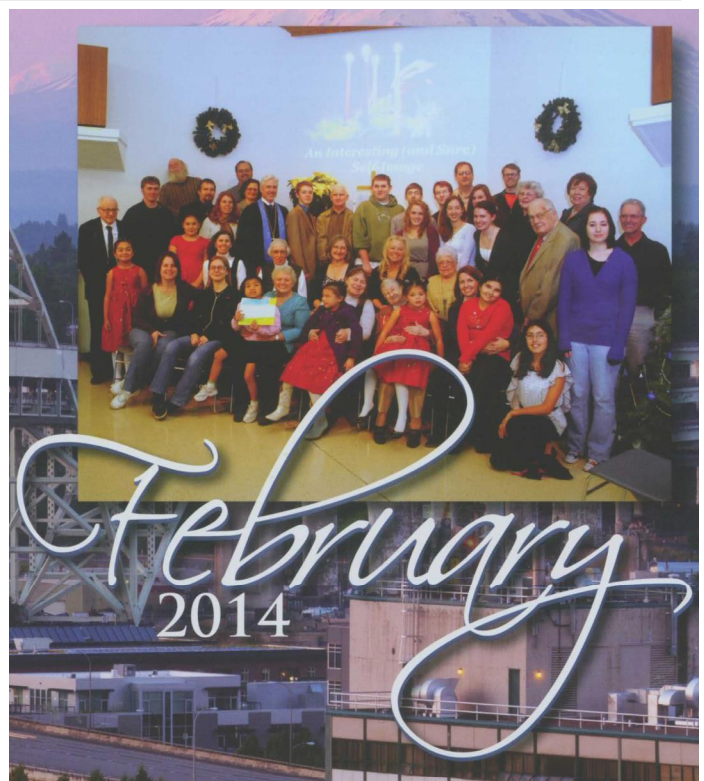

LUTHERAN WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY NEWS

Beautiful Savior, Aloha, Oregon, is under the guidance of its second pastor, Rev. Chris Cordes, who shepherds the flock of just over 100 souls. Members work in fields ranging from automotive and construction to education and high tech. They are spread across the age spectrum, with the average age being 33. Some have been known to travel two hours to arrive at church.

Gospel ministry in Oregon faces a culture obstacle of people trying to escape religion in pursuit of happiness. Nature's treasures abound here: Portland's rainforest, mountains to the east, and the ocean to the west. As one of the most unchurched places in the United States, gospel work here can be like plowing a parking lot.

A solid core of faithful believers sees as their purpose is to be and to train devoted followers of Christ. They know the most important growth is where our Savior is at the center of life. As they work to show that unchurched people matter to God, the congregation also teaches people to live an authentic faith life and to develop spiritually healthy families. They pray this foundation spreads in and through them, expanding their ministries.

FLINT PREGNANCY COUNSELING CENTER

65154 Miller Road; Suite H; Flint, MI 48503

810-767-1262; info-fl@pregnancycounselingcenters.org

Happy New Year!

In November the Pregnancy Counseling Center moved into a full-sized facility with two counseling rooms, full basement and space for clothing and infant furniture! In 2013 we took almost 500 client calls and shared God's word with every client and their guest/s. 29 ladies took pregnancy tests. 364 clients came for practical assistance: diapers, clothing, baby furniture, items you had generously donated. We handed out 46 Bibles. 31 of our clients heard the Good News of Baptism for their new babies. And we are open more hours!

This month we began a Point System to encourage our clients to learn God's Word. Clients earn points by completing Bible study books, meeting with a pastor, having their children baptized and many other opportunities to become involved with God's Word! They can redeem their accumulated points for $5 gas gift cards, new clothing, new pac n plays and other new baby furniture. Donations of these items are critical to continuing this vital program.

Flint Pregnancy Center's NEEDS:

Prayers on behalf of our clients, their children, and the volunteers who share God's Word with them.

Also: Formula, Size one diapers and pull-ups, Boy clothing in size 24 months or 2 T, Baby girl layette items in sizes 0 to 6 months, New baby bottles, Cribs, Pac-n-Plays, bouncy seats, bassinets and swings

Help is always needed to man the phone, either from the comfort of your own home or at the center! Call Barb Yehle [810-252-5864] if you will Helpline or Reception.

Christmas thank you! Our local churches sponsored 4 families for Christmas. We shared the real reason of Christmas with many more clients as they chose Christmas gifts for their children from the Christmas Room, made possible by your most generous donations of gently used toys, new clothing and books. No one was turned away!

HOW CAN I SAY 'I LOVE YOU'?

Jesus said we are to love one another even as he loved us. His intention was not just for one day a year, but for every day. For those who might be struggling with this thought here are a dozen ways of saying "I love you!"

Cambodian: Bon sro lanh oon
 Chinese: Wo ai ni
 French: Je t'aime
 German: Ich liebe dich
 Greek: S'agapo
 Hebrew: Ani ohev otahk
 Hungarian: Szretlek
 Italian: Ti voglio bene
 Norwegian: Jeg elsker Dem
 Polish: Kochem cie
 Russian: Ya vas luibliu
 Spanish: Te quiero

Are any of these too difficult to pronounce?
 Then just live the meaning of it!

LOVE

Love is patient
Love is kind
It does not envy
It does not boast
It is not proud
1 Corinthians 13:4
