Jesus is...the Lamb of God

John 1:29

"Look! The Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world."

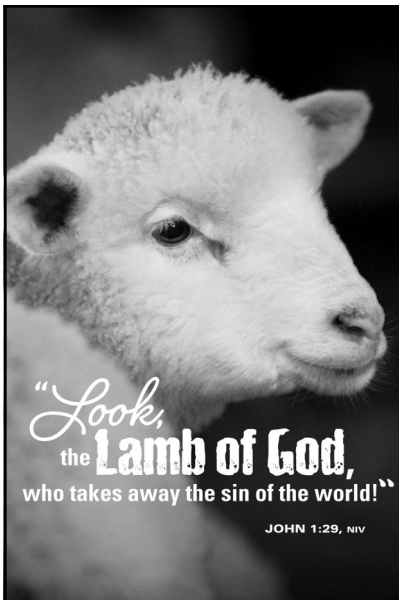

In today's urban society, many people don't often come into contact with farm animals. So when the Bible describes Jesus as "the Lamb of God," it's easy to miss the comfort in this unique name for our Savior.

When John the Baptist pointed to Jesus and said, "Look! The Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world," it would have immediately grabbed the Jews attention. God had commanded the sacrifice of lambs as part of their worship life to teach them that they needed the blood of a substitute to pay for their sins. They couldn't just make that sacrifice once. They had to offer it again and again because it was imperfect blood offered by imperfect people. They sacrificed animals, lambs that could never really take away their sin.

Sometimes we don't understand the full magnitude of our sin. Sin isn't just what we read about in the newspapers. Sin is when parents want the best for their children, but allow other things to become more important. Sin is when spouses want to be loving, but instead put their own needs and desires first. Sin is when teenagers struggle for independence and step over the line of disrespecting their parents and others in authority. Sin is nothing more and nothing less than failing to be the perfect people our perfect God demands of us.

We need the perfect blood of a substitute to take away our sins. Jesus is the only Lamb who could do that because he's the Lamb of God. He's the perfect Lamb who never fell short of God's expectations. He's the Substitute offered on the altar of the cross. His blood fully pays for the sin of the world. And that means he paid for your sin too! He's the Sacrifice that enables you to live life without fear of God's punishment. Jesus is the Lamb who gave you what you could never earn—eternal life and a home with him in heaven.

As we enter Lent this month, our focus is on everything the Lamb has done for us. We invite you to gather with us to thank him who died for us and to sing, "Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise" (Revelation 5:12).

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT—MARCH 2014

This past winter my wife and I enjoyed being able to once again coach a sport. My wife coached cheerleading for Zion and I assisted coaching boy's basketball. Coaching uses many of the same techniques as teaching does, but it allows players an opportunity to use different God-given skills than we often assess in a classroom setting. Players are asked to not only remember information, but also apply that information to make decisions and react to their surroundings. Coaches are in place to give advice and teach lessons to players so that they can be better prepared for challenges faced during gameplay, if the player is open to that help.

A player who is coachable understands that they can improve, but they must first admit their imperfections. It does not come naturally to all athletes although it sounds like an easy task. An athlete may hear the coach's lessons and disregard them as folly. I myself have suffered the consequences of foolish pride. To this day I still cannot make a left-handed layup in basketball because I did not adequately practice that skill as my coaches told me long ago. Foolish pride is to blame.

Young athletes are not the only people who must be coachable; rather, we are all living out the game of life and are looking for answers to life's pressing questions. We also need to be coachable. Showing the humility of a coachable player can allow us to more adequately serve others, respect others more highly, and improve relationships strained by pride. We become better servants as we see our need for Christ and follow his example of foot-washing (John 13). If we increase respect for others, our ability to listen to the needs of others increases along with that. And as we listen and serve others, we will inevitably enjoy healthy relationships. Not only will students and athletes at Zion Lutheran benefit from being coachable, but we also will reap benefits when we strive to live with the humility of Christ.

God's blessings on the beginning of your spring, and keep our school in your prayers as we strive to carry out the humble work of spiritually and academically training our next generation.

Below are recent highlights from your school:

- In February, Zion students performed in a well-attended patriotic concert for parents and church members.
- The Board of Education will soon debut a Tuition Assistance Fund to help our school's families who may not be able to attend Zion based on financial hardship.
- Basketball and cheerleading season has ended on a positive note, and we will soon begin co-ed volleyball for students in the upper grades.
- Zion will spend March 10-13 completing Iowa Standardized Tests to check how each student has academically grown in the past year. We will discuss results with parents a few weeks later at the Parent/Teacher Conferences on March 27.
- Spring Break is scheduled March 31-April 4

LUTHERAN WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY NEWS

WELS is helping to support a dozen missions throughout northern Thailand. In addition, a seminary and Bible Institute are training students to serve as pastors and evangelists to assist in meeting the spiritual needs of the people we serve and in reaching out to the masses with the gospel.

Thailand is a unique country with a distinct culture that includes a variety of sub-cultures and languages. Ninety-eight percent of the 66 million inhabitants practice the national religion of Buddhism. Our missions are currently reaching out to the Thai, Isan, Hmong, and Lao peoples in northern Thailand in order to bring them God's promise of eternal life through the comforting message of his love and forgiveness in Christ. The message of the gospel is unknown to 98 percent of the people living in this beautiful country.

Pray for our church workers and the congregations they serve, that the gospel message will continue to add more souls to the family of God.

WOMEN SERVING CHRIST MEETING MINUTES TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2014

Pastor opened the meeting with a devotion on The Light of the World. As Matthew 5: 16 says to let your light shine before men that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven.

We received a letter from Calvary Academy Ministries thanking us for our donation. The LWMS spring rally is April 27 at Grace Durand and the speaker will talk on Africa. The 51st LWMS convention will be June 26-29 in Dallas TX. Our missionaries this year are Rev Daniel Rautenberg, World Mission and Rev Steven P Dorn, Home Mission. A Fall Women's Retreat will be held in October in Kalamazoo.

The multipurpose picture board was received. We need to start taking pictures out of the old frames and put them on tables in the choir room. Then the frames need to be taken off the walls. The walls will need to be painted, put the pictures in the new frames and get it mounted.

We are going to table the Northwest Publishing book sale until September. It was suggested to have it available for Christmas and possibly go thru Grace in Bay City.

The Lenten dinners have been delegated. WSC has 2 dates. Soup will be served on April 2 & April 9. WSC will not be ordering Danny Duzits. Next month's servers are Katie & Terry.

Attendees: Jeannie Gregory, Paula Huggard, Jean Gregory, Harriet Kukulius, Thelma Parshall, Jean Devereaux, Terry Barancik, Katie Augustine, Laurie Lanczynski, Karen Thomford, Annette Donaldson, Mona Jean Allen.
In the Lord's Service,

Terry Barancik, Acting Secretary

STOP, LOOK AND LISTEN

Lent, the season of the church year that's associated with repentance, begins on Ash Wednesday (March 5 this year). While some people deny themselves by giving up something for Lent, others prepare for Easter through special Bible studies or devotions.

Christians observe Lent for these reasons:

- It causes us to STOP. Lent says, "Stop and rest awhile," as well as "Stop doing wrong."
- It tells us to LOOK. Look inward for an honest self-examination. Look upward to see the cross of Christ offering healing and love. Look forward to the hope of the Resurrection.
- It tells us to LISTEN. Listen to the words of Christ. Listen to the voice of God. Listen to the winds of the Spirit of God. Stop, look and listen. These three words aren't only important for our safety in travel; they're also helpful for our journey through the 40 days of Lent.

“Therefore, $\frac{\quad}{2} \frac{\quad}{3} \frac{\quad}{4} \frac{\quad}{5} \frac{\quad}{6}$, $\frac{\quad}{7}$
 $\frac{\quad}{8} \frac{\quad}{9} \frac{\quad}{10} \frac{\quad}{11}$: $\frac{\quad}{12} \frac{\quad}{13}$
 $\frac{\quad}{14} \frac{\quad}{15}$, $\frac{\quad}{16} \frac{\quad}{17}$ is here!”

2 CORINTHIANS 5:17, NIV

Answer: Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here! 2 Corinthians 5:17, NIV
